Salsiccia Lucanica

Lucanica is an ancient traditional sausage. Even before Christ, Roman soldiers discovered this special culinary product from the peoples of Basilicata region. Throughout the centuries, the Lucanica recipe was rediscovered and adapted to local tastes of other Italian regions, including Lombardy. Levoni proposes Lucanica following the Lombardy tradition. Its ingredients are: prime lean pork from pigs bred in Italy, tender fat, salt, ground pepper and chopped garlic. Meat is then filled in natural casings. Its taste is flavourful and spicy.
